Something to Read:

If you are a keen reader, then there are lots of books that relate to what we will be studying in Criminology. Here are some suggestions:

- Any books by leading Criminologist David Wilson. He has also done some documentaries you could search on YouTube or BBC iPlayer.
- A Few Kind Words and a Loaded Gun – Razor Smith – The autobiography of a career criminal.
- Under the Wig – William Clegg QC – A book written by a criminal barrister about his experiences

Something to Watch/Listen:

Type criminology into YouTube and take your pick. There are TED Talks, CrashCourse videos and so much more. If you can, copy and paste the URL into your Criminology Media Project Review. Below are a few videos of specific events which are interesting and relevant to the criminology course we study. Some of these cases will be used as case studies in some of the unit work.

Something to Write:

Task 1:

1a. In 50-100 words, summarise what you believe Criminology to be.

1b. Now watch the following video and add to your notes, summarising what you believe Criminology to be. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-tvL1dvWcFk>

Task 2:

What is the difference between crime and deviance? Look up the two terms and write a definition for each in your own words...

Crime:*Deviance:*Task 3:

Give examples of crime and deviance below. Be aware that most acts that are considered crimes would be regarded as deviant, but this is not always the case. Similarly, acts that some people regard as deviant are not always crimes.
