

Subject: Sociology

Course: AQA A Level Sociology

Lead teacher: Miss Shuttleworth

---

Something to Read:

- Socialisation - Sociology: AQA A Level
-

Something to Watch/Listen:

- What is Socialisation? | Introduction to A-Level Sociology
  - Nature vs Nurture \(Full Debate Explained in 3 Minutes\)
-

Something to Write:

‘Society makes us who we are’.

Write a reflective piece in response to this question, referencing key ideas from the text/ videos.

You must include:

- The ways and extent to which primary socialisation can influence who we are.
- The ways and extent to which secondary socialisation can influence who we are.
- How ‘nature’ might impact on who we are.
- A reflection on your final thoughts on the impact of socialisation on who we are.

Possible sentence starters:

‘To some/ a large/ very little extent, primary socialisation influences who we are. Primary socialisation means... and this can influence us by/ because...’

‘Similarly, secondary socialisation can influence who we are, for example...’

‘However, perhaps ‘nature’ has a bigger impact on who we are, meaning...’

‘Overall...’

